

Behold Scandinavia

by listening to non-stop Scandinavian music with performers from Sweden and the United States including world champion nyckelhar player Peter Puma Hedlund and the Rockridge Brothers from Sweden as well as a Classical Trio from Finland, by watching the folk dancers from Toronto as well as Jamestown.

by visiting the Viking Village and reenacting the daily life of the Vikings including the Festival Kubb tournament and the Viking ship, by eating Scandinavian food including Swedish meatball and korv dinners, Norm's korv burgers, pickled herring, and more.

by observing Scandinavian crafters at work including a Norwegian metalworker, by viewing the Carl Larsson print collection, by learning from workshops regarding music, the stories of immigrants, and much more, by participating in making your own Midsummer head wreath, helping to put the greens and flowers on the midsummer pole and dancing around it, by browsing through many shops offering Scandinavian products. Visit the Loppis – the large flea market of new and used items including many books. Other shops include the official Festival gift shop and locally crafted items in the “Made In Jamestown” booth, by winning a unique Scandinavian gift in the raffles, by sharing your Scandinavian heritage in our enhanced children/family center, by talking with the performers, presenters, volunteers, and others attending the Festival, by attending the Scandinavian Folk Festival and being Nordic for a weekend.
